International Tax Review - European Tax Awards 2017

We are delighted to inform you that Centrum Consulting has been shortlisted by International Tax Review, leading international publication, in the European Tax Awards 2017 for the following award:

- Transfer Pricing Firm of the Year - Turkey

European Tax Awards

European Tax Awards have been taken place annually since 2005 and seek to recognise the leading tax professionals from around the Europe.

International Tax Review's European Tax Awards are recognised as the most prominent awards by the top-level tax executives and the top-tier transfer pricing firms are nominated for the awards of transfer pricing firm of the year category.

Nomination

The voting process began some two months ago with the announcement by International Tax Review, leading international tax publication.

International Tax Review has used the following selection criteria for the shortlist of Transfer Pricing Firm of the Year – Turkey.

Size: This criterion considers a transfer pricing team's capable of taking on a complex and large project.

Innovation: This criterion measures if the firm advises something more than the straightforward that is commonly used in the market.

Impact: It evaluates whether the respected firm's advice has a positive impact on the client's business and the conclusion of the matter enabled the client to achieve his business goals.
